GOOD NEWS REPORT FROM ETHIOPIAN FELLOWSHIP

Let's celebrate what God is doing in our Ethiopian fellowship. Read what Pastor Tegene wrote:

"God has been moving in the Ethiopian congregation! We have been fortunate enough to continue our street-side ministry on Thursday mornings. We have been able to share our testimonies with many people and this has led to an increase in our fellowship's size. He has also blessed us by allowing us to establish a youth group led by Pastor Jacob. This youth group has provided our teenager members their own community of believers to support and encourage each other in their walk with God. This was an answer to many prayers! God is sparking a revival in our youth. He has also sparked revival among the adults. We were able to disciple and baptize more congregation members in 2019 than any year before. Praise be to the Lord for the blessings he has bestowed on us! Glory be to God!"

PARENTING WISELY CLASSES

Parenting Wisely is a FREE class offered through the Fairfax County Partners in Prevention Fund. The class is designed for parents of kids ages 11+. The program will teach you methods for improving family relationships, building respect between family members, and reducing the number of fights. The program will address some of the most common problems that families with teens face on a daily basis such as getting up on time, chores, electronic usage, and more. Skills taught will include the use of clear expectations, self-talk, mindfulness strategies, active listening, and more. All materials are included as well as light refreshments. The class will include 6 total sessions. All sessions will be held on Thursday evenings from 6:30-8 pm. Dates of sessions are: 2/6, 2/13, 2/20, 2/27, 3/5, 3/12. Space is limited to 14 participants so sign up soon! <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/10C0D45AAAB2BABFF2-parenting>
