

September 27, 2020

Week 15: Thinking Rightly about God's Love (John 4:23-24)

Where do we err the most in our understanding of God?

Objective: To better understand the deity of Christ and therefore grow in our affections for Him – so that we may live a life worthy of Him.

Purpose of Book: “These are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name” (John 20:31).

The Problem: Errant Views of God's Love

What are some false views of God's love the woman at the well was telling herself?

The problem is that we don't see worship as a loving gift from God, why?

The Solution: The Truth about God's Love

What is the truth about God's love? Why does God allow us to worship Him to experience his love?

How does having God's character in our lives relate to worship?

Reflection Questions

1. What are some perversions of God's love the world promotes?
2. What do you think about when you think of God's love for you?
3. If the second greatest commandment is to love others, how do you think you are supposed to do this? (The way God loves us... It's a high calling)