HIS HEART BEATS

His heart beats, His blood begins to flow, waking up what was dead a moment ago.
And His heart beats, now ev'rything is changed,
'cause the blood that brought us peace with God
Is racing through his veins.
And His heart beats, His heart beats.

He breathes in, His living lungs expand.
The heavy air surrounding death
Turns to breath again.
He breathes out, His Word in flesh once more.
The Lamb Of God slain for us is a lion ready to roar.
And His heart beats.

So, crown Him the Lord of Life,
crown Him the Lord of Love,
crown Him the Lord of All.

He rises glorified in flesh, clothed in immortality,
The first-born from the dead.
He rises and His work's already done, so,
He's resting as He rises to reclaim the bride He won.
And His heart beats.

The last enemy to be destroyed is death,
the last enemy to be destroyed is death.
He must reign until no enemy is left.
The last enemy to be destroyed,
to be destroyed is death. Oh.

His heart beats, He will never die again.
I know that death no longer has dominion over Him.
So, my heart beats with the rhythm of the saints
as I look for the seeds the King has sown
To burst up from their graves. I know, I know.

He took one breath and put death to death,
Where is your sting, O grave?
How grave is your defeat. I know, I know,
He took one breath and put death to death,
Where is your sting, O grave?
How grave is your defeat.
How great, how great is his victory.

JANUARY | ROMANS 6:10-11

¹⁰ For the death he died he died to sin, once for all, but the life he lives he lives to God. ¹¹ So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus.
