POST-RESURRECTION APPEARANCES OF THE CHRIST

KING JESUS APPEARS

An angel rolls away the stone from the tomb before sunrise. The guards are seized with fear and eventually flee.	Matt 28:2-4
Women disciples visit the tomb and discover King Jesus missing.	Matt 28:1; Mk 16:1-4; Luke 24:1-3; Jn 20:1
Mary Magdalene leaves to tell Peter and John.	Jn 20:1-2
Other women remain at the tomb; they see two angels who tell them of King Jesus' resurrection.	Matt 28:5-7; Mk 16:5-7; Lk 24:4-8
Peter and John run to the tomb and then leave.	Lk 24:12; Jn 20:3-10
Mary Magdalene returns to the tomb; Christ appears to her.	Mk 16:9-11; Jn 20:11-18
Jesus appears to the other women Mary, mother of James, Salome, and Joanna.	Matt 28:8-10
At this time, the guards report the events to the religious leaders and are bribed to lie.	Matt 28:11-15
Jesus privately appears to Peter.	1 Cor 15:5
Jesus appears to Cleopas and companion.	Mk 16:12-13; Lk 24:13-32
Jesus appears to 10 apostles, with Thomas missing, in the Upper Room.	Lk 24:36-43
8 days after His appearance to the 10, Jesus appears to all 11 apostles, including Thomas.	Jn 20:26-28
Jesus appears to 7 disciples by the Sea of Galilee and performs the miracle of the fish.	Jn 21:1-14
Jesus appears to 500 on a mountain in Galilee.	Matt 28:16-20; Mk 16:15-18; 1 Cor 15:6
Jesus appears to His half-brother.	James 1 Cor 15:7
In Jerusalem, Jesus appears again to His disciples.	Acts 1:3-8
Jesus ascends into Heaven while the disciples look on.	Mk 16:19-20; Lk 24:50-53; Acts 1:9-12
