A STORY LIKE THAT

Even though I am a day late, I would like to start by wishing a very happy Mother's Day to all of the moms and mother figures. The sacrifices that you make to nurture and care for others are very much appreciated and valued. May the Lord bless you and fill your cup to overflowing!

This past week was a little bit "light" in terms of my regular commitments because of the Feria. I was thankful for the gift of some extra time with friends as well as the opportunity of getting some alone time at the beach on Saturday. :-) Some of the highlights of the week were celebrating Pedro's birthday, going to the Feria with the ladies from Pedro's family and spending time with Naha. In my conversation with Naha, I asked her if she had ever heard a story like the testimony that was shared in her home a couple weeks ago. She said that she had not. She knows of some Saharawi people who are now atheists, but she has not heard of any from that particular city who now follow Jesus. May the Lord continue to move so that there are many such stories! Please keep praying for Naha. She seems to be seeking so let's pray that she would be steered away from that which is false and toward that which is True.

PRAISE AND PRAYER ITEMS:

- * Praise God for opportunities to continue learning about culture and growing in relationship with those around me through the Feria de los Caballos.
- * Praise God that I was able to get an appointment this week to renew my residency card. Please pray for the Lord's mercy for this process to go smoothly!
- * Pray the Lord would be glorified through the opportunity of hosting a Saharawi child from the refugee camps for 2 months this summer. Please pray the Lord will be over all of the details and that He will use this to make a Kingdom impact.
- * Please keep praying for our Saharawi ladies event on May 27th. Pray that each of these ladies will see their value before their Creator God and will come to know the extent He went to in order to redeem them from the bondage of sin and shame.
- * Pray for the visitors that we will host in June: the Media Team Leader from the home office (beginning of the month) and the DreamTeam (end of the month). May the Lord bless the preparation of these visits and use the time to advance His Kingdom.
